

Configuring Outlook

You will setup Planning in Outlook. This means you need to share calendars and grant Traffic permissions to easily create and view events in other calendars. You may also want to create calendar groups, assign colours to individual's calendars and find the best option to view multiple calendars on your screen.